February 5
Rachel Greenblatt
“A Beautiful and Costly Procession”: Jewish Quest for Cultural Belonging in Frankfurt and Prague (c. 1680—1750).

February 12
Christina Henderson
“On the Threshold of Woman’s Era: Rebuilding the Future at a World’s Fair.”

February 19
Martha Cutter
“The Illustrated Slave: Antislavery Books and the Graphic Culture of the Transatlantic Abolition Movement, 1820–1852.”

February 26
Frank Costigliola
“My Russian Self: The Frustrated Passions of George F. Kennan.”

March 5
Gordon Fraser

March 12
Beata Moskal
“Linguistic Universals and Where They Come From.”

March 26
Lucía Santana
“Representing Spanishness in 1940s Argentina: The Republican and Galician Exiles.”

April 2
Jeffrey Dudas

April 14
Fiona Somerset

April 23
Joseph McAlhany
“Monuments of Unageing Intellect: An Ancient Scholar’s Life in Letters.”

April 29
Fakhreddin Azimi
From promoter of religion to “protector of the nation” mapping the emergence of Khomeini.